What information we collect, use, and why

We only collect or use your name(s) and contact details.

We use this information to:

- respond to requests for information about the Trust's activities;
- keep local residents and others who subscribe to our e-newsletter up to date with the Trust's activities and other local news;
- contact people who want to volunteer with the Trust.

Lawful bases

By providing us with your name(s) and contact details you give us consent to use them for these purposes only.

Where we get personal information from

We acquire your name(s) and contact details from you directly and from no other source.

How long we keep information

We will store your name(s) and contact details indefinitely unless they change and/or become defunct and/or you tell us otherwise.

Your data protection rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal data.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal data you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal data in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal data you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

Your right to withdraw consent – When we use consent as our lawful basis you have the right to withdraw your consent.

You will not need to pay a fee to exercise your rights. If you make a request, we have one calendar month to respond to you.

To make a data protection rights request, please contact us using the contact details at the top of this privacy notice.

How to complain

If you have any concerns about our use of your personal data, you can make a complaint to us using the contact details at the top of this privacy notice.

If you remain unhappy with how we've used your data after raising a complaint with us, you can also complain to the ICO.
